

University of the West of England

Psychology of Women
Section

Feminism in Action

A One Day Seminar

Hosted by the UWE Gender Studies Research Group and POWS

11 July 2011

10am-5pm: Room 4E13 (E Block), Frenchay Campus, University of the West of England

Programme

Kabul-Reykjavík-Gaza: Feminist transnational dialogue in action

Dr Annadis Rúdólfsdóttir, Studies Director, The Gender Equality Studies and Training Programme, University of Iceland, Reykjavík, Iceland

Feminist adventures beyond the ivory tower: The New View Campaign

Dr Virginia Braun, Senior Lecturer, Department of Psychology, The University of Auckland, New Zealand

Feminism in action in Bristol

Dr Helen Mott, Coordinator, Bristol Fawcett Society

Feminist activism today and its future

Anna Brown and Sian Norris, Bristol Feminist Network

Sexual violence prevention and the problem of pornography

Dr Nicola Gavey, Associate Professor, Department of Psychology, The University of Auckland, New Zealand

For more information on the seminar, including information on how to get to the Frenchay Campus and a campus map, see: <http://www.uwe.ac.uk/research/groups/gender-studies/index.shtml>. If you are parking on campus, report to the visitor's reception (gatehouse), east entrance, and you will be given a token for car park 19 (the visitor's car park).

This is a free seminar open to all. Refreshments will be provided; lunch can be purchased from various shops and cafés on the Frenchay campus.

To register, please contact Victoria.Clarke@uwe.ac.uk

